

Brown-0206 (6 February 2020)

Janet Intrieri (Chief Scientist)

Compiled: 02.06 / 16:30 AST

SPECIAL NOTE: The Ron Brown was in Barbados port at from 1500 AST, Tuesday, 4 Feb through 1100 AST, Thursday, 6 Feb. We are transited today to 13° 51.0' N / -55° 12.00' W.

1. Objective

Head to new station point sample aerosol, clouds, BL, ocean properties.

2. Synoptic Situation

No update while we are in transit.

3. Cruise-day Elements

No balloon launches today. Sondes will resume after 68 nm from Barbados.

4. Instrument Status

Wave Glider 245 not navigating properly and will be recovered sometime tomorrow (Fri, 7 Feb). Radar was successfully turned on at 1500 AST.

5. Outlook

Recover Wave Glider 245 tomorrow later afternoon. Transit to new station point (tentatively: 13° 51.0' N / -54° 54.0' W) Stay at new station point until 10 Feb. Recover assets 10-11 Feb. Transit back to Barbados on 12 Feb. In port on 13 Feb.

6. Figures

None provided.